

Questionnaire

- Could you please present yourself?
- Could you please describe the company you are working for?
- How would you describe your company actions and influence on its sector of activity?
- What is your Department within this organisation?
- How is your Department built?
- What is your role within this structure?
- What were your previous professional experiences?
- How did they lead you to your current job?
- According to you, what would be the key quality and strengths required to succeed in the professional world?
- What would be your advice for a newly graduated engineer? Generally and also more precisely in your field of expertise?
- How do you see the future for your activity? Your company? Your market?
- Who would you advise me to contact to go further with this project?

Thank you,
Rémy